Table to Table's Virtual Walk

NJ Food Rescue Challenges Individuals and Corporations to Help Raise Enough to Deliver 1 Million Meals to Hungry Neighbors One Step at-a-Time with Table to Table's Virtual Walk on April 1-30th

Get Fit and Win Prizes, While You Do Good

Saddle Brook, NJ, March 20, 2023 –Table to Table, New Jersey's first food rescue organization, is springing into action to raise enough funds to provide the equivalent of 1 million meals to food insecure NJ neighbors through its Table to Table Virtual Walk, taking place April 1-30. Fun and flexible, the Virtual Walk lets participants set their own pace, pick their place and choose whether to walk, run, bike or hike. Participants can win amazing prizes from such popular places as: Chipotle, DoorDash, and Target by entering the photo contest and using the hashtag #tabletotablewalk. Plus, the more you fundraise, the more you will win more! Registration is free with a suggested donation of $25. To sign up or become a sponsor, click here or visit www.tabletotable.org/virtualwalk.

"With rising costs, many seniors, veterans, and families are struggling to choose between paying the rent or buying nutritious food. They really need our help," said Denise Andersen, Table to Table's Executive Director. "Table to Table's Virtual Walk is an easy and flexible way for individuals and corporations to rally to help alleviate food insecurity," concludes Andersen.

Why Participate in Table to Table's Virtual Walk?

Food insecurity is something that plagues even wealthy states such as New Jersey. In fact, 1 in 9 NJ residents and nearly 1 in 5 NJ children do not know where their next meal is coming from. Help eliminate food insecurity, register to walk today.
